WILL LOSE HIS ARM.

A Professor's Mishap While Illustrating a Surgical Operation.

By Telegram to the Post-Dispatch.
New York, March 15.—While Prof. George Tuttle was illustrating an abdominal operation of a subject before a number of students in the dissecting rooms of Roosevelt Hospital on Wednesday morning, he sustained injuries that are liable to lose him his right arm. The operation had been merely commenced, and Dr. Tuttle was sewing up the incision when he accidentally ran the needle into his right hand. He thought nothing of the wound at the time, but bathed it and cauterized it as a precautionary measure to prevent blood poisoning. He continued the operation and when it had been completed returned home. The hand began to swell on Thursday morning and evidences of blood poisoning became visible. He called in several of his associates, but in spite of their efforts the hand continued to swell rapidly and the inflammation increased to such an extent that, which had by last night swelled to twice its natural size.

A consultation of physicians was called, and if the arm does not improve by this morning it will be necessary to resort to amputation to save the doctor's life. Dr. Tuttle is one of the best known abdominal operators among the surgeons of this country and is professor of that branch at the University of the City. It is necessary to resort to amputation to save his life it will probably put an end to his career.

The Treadwell-Seymour Suit.

NEW YORK, March 15.—The suit of Treadwell and Seymour has been called for trial. It is one of great interest to mining men. The plaintiff alleges that he was employed by the defendant to purchase a mine, and he bought the Phoenix mine of Arizona. He was to receive one-quarter of the value of the mine, but he has not been paid and he asks judgment. Seymour pleads non-indebtedness. When the mine was bought it was considered almost worthless, and had several judgments on it. Seymour argued a company and sold the stock at $10 a share, but the shares went down to 75 cents. The owners concluded to hold on and work the mine. A plant was put up and work begun, and now the company claims to have $5,000,000 in sight, which it can get out for $200,000. The question that arises in the case is whether Treadwell is to receive one-quarter of the original value of the mine or one-quarter of the present value.

Take the Ohio & Mississippi Railway for Cincinnati and Louisville. Only line running solid daily trains with Pullman Sleeper and Buffet Parlor Cars attached. Ticket offices 301 and 103 North Fourth street, and Union Depot, St. Louis.

A Fire in a Michigan Mine.

NORWICH, Mich., March 15.—A fire started in the new shaft, between the fifth and sixth levels, of the Vulcan mine last evening, and reached the shaft-house, burning it to the ground. The building adjacent to it in danger, especially in the pump-house, which is connected with the shaft. The loss cannot be estimated. It will reach many thousand dollars.

CAPT. BROWN'S STABLE.

HOW THE WEALTHY PITTSBURGER'S HORSES HAVE WINTERED.

Condition of Tenny and Other Cracks at Westchester—An Unsatisfactory Fight Between Australian Murphy and Tommy Warren—Racing at Clifton—The Amateur Wrestling Tournament—General Sporting News.

CONCERNING the condition of the horses stabled at Westchester a representative of the New York Tribune, who paid a visit there recently, has the following to say: Of all the horses trained in the immediate neighborhood of this city those of Capt. Brown give the best promise, and from what was seen yesterday it is extremely likely that the consistent good form shown by the Captain's representatives last year will be maintained during the coming season. It will be remembered that many of Capt. Brown's yearlings at that time, while coming just spring from their headquarters in Mobile, were attacked at Washington with influenza and were judiciously thrown up for the season. By dint of the gentlest and most careful treatment Rogers has been enabled to bring them round into perfect health, and they have now developed into a remarkably fine lot of 3-year-olds.

One that is bound to attract the attention of all good judges is a good-looking dark bay son of Longfellow—Rosemary, who is built on the lines of a high-class racehorse. His superb quarters, sloping shoulders, back, shapely head and neck, deep body, well set on legs like bars of iron, and his generally fine, blood-like appearance, stamp him as a horse of high quality.

"I never had a better looking or more racing-like colt," said Rogers yesterday. He has grown into a splendid specimen of a colt, but like all the Longfellow's, he wants plenty of time to develop, and I don't mean to hurry him. He can now be put into active training, and the same may be said of all my lot. Depend upon it whenever that Rosemary colt runs the rest of the field will know that they have been to the races."

Another dark bay colt by Longfellow—Anne Boleyn, though not so good looking as his half-brother, is built all over like a race horse and should pay for following.

Other dark 3-year-olds are the filly by Springfield—Genevieve, the colt by Rosemary—Lady Jane, and a powerfully built rangy looking son of Ten Broeck. All these are ready for training and will be early to hand. Genevieve has grown and did not run so well last season, and is now in appearance one of the handsomest fillies on the turf. Lady Jane, a yearling, was named and racing-like 3-year-old brown colt, by Enquirer—Bismarck, could not be trained last year, but Rogers said yesterday that as a 3-year-old he was ten or fifteen times better than the colt he is now well and will be seen out this season. Bismarck has grown little.

His half-brother, a 3-year-old, is the most powerful 3-year-old in training and looks the picture of health. Of Defaulter, whose beautiful chestnut coat is like satin, the same may be said, and he is as lively as a kitten.

"One thing I have found out about him," said Rogers, "is that he does not like to run into the open sun. He is a real sun-burner." J. A. B. shows a little more length and reach than last year and is now an exceptionally good specimen of a 3-year-old. Conter, who was a useful horse last year, has scarcely grown at all. Reporter, good as he was last year, will surprise no one by his season by the vast improvements he shows everywhere, and he is now a really beautiful colt. Like nearly all the Enquirer's, he gets better with age. An exceedingly promising 3-year-old is a daughter of the imported Richmond—Virginia, who wants a lot of time for development, but should ultimately become a good horse.

Her magnificent quarters and shoulders, powerful neck and deep body set on hard shapely legs, eloquently speak in favor. She inherits the plain head of her sire and the keen eye of her dam. She is a really beautiful colt. Like nearly all the Enquirer's, he gets better with age. Clifton Meeting.

CLIFTON, N. J., March 15.—Below is the result of the races here yesterday:
First race, purse $50, for beaten 4-year-olds and upward, selling allowances, six and a half furlongs—Clifton at the front when the flag fell, and followed by Savage, Fountain and Lander. The race was a runaway for the home side. Then Savage and Fountain passed him, and ran head and head, and won by a length. Lander was a mile and a half behind. Time, 1:20.

Second race, purse $50, for 4-year-olds and upward, selling allowances, six and a half furlongs—Savage at the front when the flag fell, and followed by Fountain and Lander. The race was a runaway for the home side. Then Savage and Fountain passed him, and ran head and head, and won by a length. Lander was a mile and a half behind. Time, 1:20.

Third race, purse $50, for 4-year-olds and upward, selling allowances, six and a half furlongs—Savage at the front when the flag fell, and followed by Fountain and Lander. The race was a runaway for the home side. Then Savage and Fountain passed him, and ran head and head, and won by a length. Lander was a mile and a half behind. Time, 1:20.

$500, for all ages, six furlongs—Carnegie won by two lengths from Insight, who was three lengths before Moonstone. Time, 1:10.
Fourth race, purse $50, selling allowances, one and three-quarter miles—On the back-strack Darling passed the leader and won easily by three lengths. Time, 2:00.
Fifth race, purse $50, for maiden 3-year-olds, to carry 100 pounds, five furlongs from Sam Love, who was two lengths in front of Undag, third. Time, 1:08.
Sixth race, purse $50, for maiden 3-year-olds, to carry 100 pounds, five-eighths of a mile—Nona won, Waterloo second, Imogene third. Time, 1:00.

Catch-as-Catch-Can Wrestling.
In the tournament to be held at the Entertainment Hall of the Exposition building on March 26 and 27, under the auspices of the Western Association of Amateur Athletes to decide the amateur boxing and wrestling championships of the West, the wrestling will be catch-as-catch-can style and not Greco-Roman as previously announced by the committee in charge. This change had to be made because the rules of the Amateur Athletic Union and the Western Association of Amateur Athletes provide that all wrestling contests shall be at catch-as-catch-can style. It has also been decided by the committee in charge to provide that no member of any athletic club or not, to enter the tournament, providing those who are not members make affidavit that they have never violated the rule of the Western Association defining an amateur.

Wrestle at the Gymnasium.
The following communication received at this office explains itself:
ST. LOUIS, March 15, 1890.—In answer to Mr. Barth's challenge I will state that under no consideration will I wrestle at the Missouri Gymnasium. If Mr. Barth wishes to try his abilities as a wrestler with me, he can meet me on Tuesday or Friday evening at the South St. Louis Turner Hall, where I will accommodate him with a friendly bout. I do not think the change was of Mr. Barth's getting, and I will not be a party to any scheme with no honors attached. FRANK LAUX.

The Brotherhood Wins Again.
PHILADELPHIA, Pa., March 15.—The Court of Common Pleas, No. 4, this morning rendered its decision in the baseball suit of the Philadelphia National League Club against Wm. Hallman. The court refused to grant the injunction asked for to restrain Hallman from playing with the Philadelphia Players' League Club, and sustains the Players' League Club in its suit against the National League Club's bill. Hallman played with the Philadelphia National League Club last season and the latter in its bill claims that under the "reserve rule" the club had an option on his services for the season of 1890.

The Cincinnati have released Pitcher Wittrock, who was secured from the Springfield (O.) club, and either Van or Rhines will also be let go, as the club still has five pitchers.
The suit of the New York club against the Philadelphia National League Club, which was argued in New York yesterday and decision reserved.

MURPHY AND WARREN.

An Unsatisfactory Meeting for the Feather-weight Championship of the World.
SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., March 15.—Billy Murphy of Australia, who recently defeated Ike Weir, the Belfast Spider, and Tommy Warren of California, met before the Occidental Club last night for a purse of $2,000 and the feather-weight championship of the world. Despite the fact that Murphy had difficulty in reducing himself to 118 pounds, and that Warren was in prime condition, the Australian had the odds on him. The fight was a close one, and the referee, who was a local man, decided in favor of Warren. The fight was a close one, and the referee, who was a local man, decided in favor of Warren.

Warren did most of the leading in the third round, and gave the Australian a good lesson in the art of boxing. He landed a series of staggering right and left-hand blows in the jaw and on the body.
Murphy was distressed when he came up for the fourth round, but he started in with a vicious rush and led out right and left. He landed a series of staggering right and left-hand blows in the jaw and on the body.

Planning Bank Robberies.

CHICAGO, Ill., March 15.—A dispatch from Marion, Ind., says: The bank people of this place have been warned from Chicago of the existence in that city of a plot for a raid on the banking houses of Marion. The letter exposing the plot says that some of the conspirators visited this place a week ago and secured the names and places of residence of all bank people and their employees, diagrams of the banking rooms and full details as to the police protection, etc. The bank people consider the warning a threat, and a good deal of weight, and have taken all necessary precautions for safety.

FORTY-ONE PRISONERS

ARRAIGNED TO-DAY IN THE CRIMINAL COURT TO ANSWER INDICTMENTS.

Six of the Defendants Acknowledge Their Guilt and Accept the Punishment Imposed Upon Them by Judge Normile. Some Old Offenders Who Had Faced the Court Before.

To-day was arraignment day in the St. Louis Criminal Court. A total of forty-one defendants, against whom indictments were returned in the Criminal Court on the March Grand Jury on yesterday, were brought into court and records made of the pleas entered by them in the cases at interest.
Six of these defendants acknowledged their guilt. One of these was Edward Burke. The defendant stood charged with burglary in the second degree and larceny. On December 5, 1889, he entered the residence of Charles Herbert, 2015 South Broadway, and stole a dog valued at $3 and $25 in money. Judge Normile permitted the defendant to plead guilty to petit larceny and sentenced him to serve one year in the Workhouse. Burke will be remembered in connection with the famous Willie Maler case, he being one of the three dog catchers who caught the boy.

WITH A WIRE.
He with the other defendants, Gierke and Angelotti, were tried in the Criminal Court on the charge of assault to do great bodily harm. They were convicted by the jury and sentenced to serve three months each in jail. A recommendation was also made that the five months which the men had spent in jail previous to the trial be taken as sufficient punishment. The defendants were then released.
Wm. Brummer, charged in two indictments with burglary in the first degree and larceny, entered a plea of guilty to the charge of burglary in the second degree and larceny in one action. Judge Normile sentenced him to five years in the penitentiary. Circuit Attorney Glover then entered a nolle prosequi in the second indictment against the man. The offense which Brummer acknowledged was the entering of the residence of James H. Bright, 1218 North Main street, on the night of January 16 last and stealing three coats and a quantity of silverware of the total value of $20.

A FUGITIVE INCIDENT.
In connection with this burglary was in the fact that Brummer after securing his plunder in a convenient bundle, broke into the pantry of the residence of the estate of the late man. The offense which Brummer acknowledged was the entering of the residence of James H. Bright, 1218 North Main street, on the night of January 16 last and stealing three coats and a quantity of silverware of the total value of $20.

The charge against George Bauer, as shown by the indictment, was one of burglary in the first degree and larceny. When arraigned the defendant said he was guilty of grand larceny. On January 21 last Bauer stole a gold watch and a suit of clothing, valued at $100, from the residence of Wm. L. Schreier, 1918 North Broadway. FLOORS BURNED.

Disastrous Fire at Kirksville, Mo., This Morning.
By Telegram to the Post-Dispatch.
KIRKSVILLE, Mo., March 15.—A most disastrous fire occurred in this city this morning. About 9 o'clock fire was discovered in Lamkin's dry goods store on the south side of the square, and before assistance could be had it gained such headway that the entire block east, and one building west was consumed. Seven brick buildings were utterly demolished in a little more than an hour despite the heroic efforts of the fire company. The loss in merchandise will be from $50,000 to $60,000. The principal losers are E. F. Helmer & Co., John Caskey, Hannah & Six, Grove & Co., A. Dutcher, First National Bank, Journal Printing Co., and Kirksville Democrat. All of the above carried insurance from opposite to two-thirds of the amount lost.
